NEWS AND NOTES

Watch for the new elementary science handbook (grades 4-6) from the State Department of Public Instruction. Due for distribution to Iowa schools early this fall.

Nominations for the Outstanding Biology Teacher Award are now being accepted. The American Optical Company is awarding a microscope to each state recipient of the award. For nomination forms contact: Paul W. Tweeten, Science Consultant, Department of Public Instruction, 217 Seventh Street, Des Moines, Iowa 50309.

The Iowa Geological Survey Publication, Educational Series No. 1, will be published soon. The title is "The Fossils and Rocks of Eastern Iowa," authored by Jeanette Noel Rose. This should be of interest to earth science teachers throughout Iowa.

The elementary science program developed by the American Association for the Advancement of Science and sponsored by the National Science Foundation is now in part available commercially from the Xerox Corporation. The title is "Science—a Process Approach."
